market analysis | RICHARD MCCRANN

Interest rate hike keeps gains down

U.S. stocks rose after a report showed consumer confidence was the highest in two years but concerns about Federal Reserve raising interest rates by a quarter point, kept gains down.

hold spending could lead the U.S. Federal Reserve to raise rates higher in the future. BAE Systems stock rose by 4% after speculation that China Airlines of Taiwan might order for the Airbus A380 "superjumbo".
